

Speaker Profiles

In Anaheim, you can learn about the latest technologies in all areas of the System i environment by experts in those areas. Here is a sampling of speakers delivering some of the education happening at the conference. For a complete listing of all sessions and speakers, visit www.common.org/sessions.html.

IP Telephony

Michael Leo, 3Com

Michael Leo is Director of Convergence Marketing for 3Com and responsible for developing go-to-market strategy and messaging for 3Com IP telephony solutions for enterprises of all sizes. Michael has over 22 years of sales, marketing and management experience in the telephony industry with organizations such as Honeywell, Tel Plus, ROLM, Siemens, Cisco System and 3Com.

Mike Rousseaux, IBM

Mike Rousseaux is a Senior Offering Manager for IBM System i, the mid-market focused server line in IBM's Systems and Technology Group. Before joining that team in 2006, he was a Senior Certified IT Specialist with the Lotus brand of IBM Software Group where he led the sales and deployment strategy for Notes/Domino, WorkPlace and Portal technology in the Financial Sector.

IP Telephony

Open Source

Jim Mason, Cape Cod Bay Systems

Jim Mason is VP of Technical Services at www.ebt-now.com, a Web specialist delivering: planning, architecture, design, development, implementation, hosting, support, and training services for WebSphere and Enterprise open-source environments.

Pete Helgren, Value Added Software

Pete Helgren is President of Value Added Software, Inc. Pete is an MCSE and an IBM Certified Specialist with over 20 years of system 3X/AS400/iSeries/System i experience. His passion has always been in system integration and currently focuses on Open Source applications and integration activities.

Open Source

PHP for RPG

Jon Paris, Partner400

Jon Paris has been involved in the data processing industry for over 30 years, his career spanning from operations to compiler design. He spent 12 years with IBM's Toronto Lab and played a major role in the definition of the new RPG IV language and in promoting its use with IBM Business Partners and users.

George Farr, IBM

George Farr joined the IBM Toronto Lab in 1985 and has worked with the RPG development team, System i languages architecture and planning team, visual development organization as Compile team leader and is now Visual RPG development manager.

PHP for RPG

WebSphere

Pat Fleming, IBM

Pat Fleming has been working with IBM for 25 years in Rochester, Minnesota, USA. Pat has had technical leadership responsibilities in SLIC, file systems, LDAP directories, NetWare and Windows on a card and most recently IBM middleware on System i. Currently Pat is a Senior Technical Staff Member with technical planning for System i.

Al Grega, IBM

Al Grega is responsible for managing the WebSphere product portfolio on the IBM System i platform Worldwide. Prior to this position he was the Director of Product Marketing at LANSAS USA for over two years, and before that an IBM'er for over 24 years. He has experience in operating systems development, services, marketing and sales.

WebSphere

System i Operations

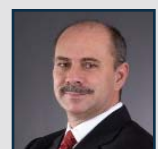

Chuck Stupca, IBM

Chuck Stupca has worked for IBM in Rochester, Minnesota, since 1968. He has extensive knowledge of work management and is currently a member of the System i Technology Center, where he develops and delivers customer education and provides consultant support.

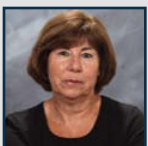

Richard Dolewski, Midrange Computer Group

Mr. Richard Dolewski is a certified systems integration specialist and disaster recovery planner. As Vice President for technical and contingency services provided by Mid-Range, he has extensive experience in Disaster Recovery Planning, BCP, Backup & Recovery program design, and Systems Availability.

System i Operations

iSeries Access for Web

Carole Miner, IBM

Carole Miner is a Senior Software Engineer for System i Client Integration at the IBM Rochester Lab. She has a strong grounding in programming, planning and leadership including the original PC Support, FSIOP (now called Integrated xSeries Server).

Doug Beauchene, IBM

Doug Beauchene joined IBM in 1988 and is currently an Advisory Software Engineer at IBM Rochester. Doug has worked primarily in the area of client connectivity development focusing on the Windows workstation platform and web serving environments. Doug is currently the team leader for the System i Access for Web development team.

iSeries Access for Web

LPAR

Devaughn Rackham, IBM

Devaughn Rackham is an Advisory Software Engineer with 14 years of experience at IBM. He is currently team leader for the LPAR Simplification User Interface team with responsibility for the System Planning Tool (SPT) user interface, the System Plan function in the HMC User Interface, and the Integrated Virtualization Manager (IVM) user interface.

Kevin Mort, Arrow Electronics

Kevin Mort is a former IT Manager and currently a Systems Engineer with IBM VAD Arrow Electronics. His focus areas are System i planning and operations, LPAR and Lotus Software. He holds certifications including System i Solution Design, Implementation, LPAR and Domino Administration.

LPAR